

ELIZABETH PAPP KAMALI
HARVARD LAW SCHOOL
1525 Massachusetts Avenue · Cambridge, MA 02138
(617) 495-3101 · ekamali@law.harvard.edu

---

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

---

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Harvard Law School                                    | Austin Wakeman Scott Professor of Law, 2021 – presentDeputy Dean, 2020 – 2023Professor of Law, 2020 – 2021Assistant Professor of Law, 2015 – 2020 |
| Harvard UniversityFaculty of Arts &amp; Sciences | Affiliated Faculty, Department of History, 2024 – present   |

---

EDUCATION

---

University of Michigan, Department of History, M.A., 2012, Ph.D., 2015
Dissertation: A Felonious State of Mind: Mens Rea in Thirteenth- and Fourteenth-Century England
(Co-Chairs: Thomas A. Green and Charles Donahue)
Paper Prizes: Arthur Fondiler Dissertation Prize, University of Michigan (2016)
Honorable Mention, ProQuest Distinguished Dissertation Award (2015)
Medieval Academy of America Graduate Student Prize for best grad student paper (2013)
American Society for Legal History Kathryn T. Preyer Award (2013)
Fellowships: University of Michigan History Department Finishing Fellowship (2015)
Rackham Humanities Dissertation Fellowship (2013-2014)
Rackham Humanities Research Candidacy Fellowship (2012-2013)
Rackham Centennial Spring/Summer Fellowship (2012)
Gladys Davis Fellowship, University of Michigan Department of History (2012)

Harvard Law School, J.D., magna cum laude, 2007
Internship: U.S. Attorney's Office, Boston, MA, Criminal Appeals Division (2006)
Fellowship: Harvard Law School Summer Research Fellowship (2007)

Harvard College, A.B., magna cum laude with highest honors in History, Phi Beta Kappa, 1997
Paper Prize: Colton Award for excellence in preparation of senior thesis in Department of History (1997)

---

PUBLICATIONS AND WORKS IN PROGRESS

---

Book:

*Felony and the Guilty Mind in Medieval England* (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, Studies in Legal History Series, 2019).

Reviewed in: American Historical Review 126:1, American Journal of Legal History 60:2, Choice 57:5, English Historical Review 136:581, History 105:365, Journal of British Studies 59:3, The Mediaeval Journal 10:2, Renaissance Quarterly 74:3, Speculum 96:1.

Book Prizes:

2019 David Yale Prize, Selden Society.

Exemplary Legal Writing, 2019 Honoree, The Green Bag Almanac & Reader.

Honorable Mention, 2020 Peter Gonville Stein Book Award, American Society for Legal History.

Book (as co-editor):

*The Learned and Lived Law: Essays in Honor of Charles Donahue* (Brill, 2024) (with Saskia Lettmaier and Nikitas E. Hatzimihail).

*Leading Constitutional Cases on Criminal Justice* (Foundation Press, 2022, 2023) (with Lloyd L. Weinreb, who edited the book solo through 2021).

Articles and Book Chapters:

“Consent in Medieval English Marriage and Misconduct.” In The Learned and Lived Law: Essays in Honor of Charles Donahue, edited by Elizabeth Papp Kamali, Saskia Lettmaier, and Nikitas E. Hatzimihail, 161-191. Leiden: Brill, 2024.

“Introduction” (coauthored with Saskia Lettmaier). In The Learned and Lived Law: Essays in Honor of Charles Donahue, edited by Elizabeth Papp Kamali, Saskia Lettmaier, and Nikitas E. Hatzimihail, 1-18. Leiden: Brill, 2024.

Review Essay on Ada Maria Kuskowski, Vernacular Law: Writing and the Reinvention of Customary Law in Medieval France (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2022), The Bulletin of Medieval Canon Law 40 (2023), 227-235.

“The Audacity of Judging Mind in Medieval England,” The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies 53:3 (2023), 493-518.

“Finding Facts in Medieval English Law,” Journal of Legal Analysis 15:1 (2023), 158-182.

“The Horrible Sepulture of Mannes Resoun: Intoxication and Medieval English Felony Law,” Rechtsgeschichte—Legal History 30 (2022), 20-44.

“Tales of the Living Dead: Dealing with Doubt in Medieval English Law,” Speculum 96:2 (2021), 367-417.

Paper Prize: 2022 Sutherland Prize, American Society for Legal History.

Review Essay on R. H. Helmholz, The Profession of Ecclesiastical Lawyers: An Historical Introduction (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2019), The Bulletin of Medieval Canon Law 37 (2020), 271-290.

“Trial by Ordeal by Jury in Medieval England, or Saints and Sinners in Literature and Law.” In Emotion, Violence, Vengeance and Law in the Middle Ages: Essays in Honour of William Ian Miller, edited by Kate Gilbert and Stephen D. White, 49-79. Leiden: Brill, 2018.

Paper Prize: Honorable Mention, 2019 Sutherland Prize, American Society for Legal History.

“A Crossroads in Criminal Procedure: The Assumptions Underlying England’s Adoption of Trial by Jury for Crime” (coauthored with Thomas A. Green). In Law and Society in Later Medieval England and Ireland: Essays in Honour of Paul Brand, edited by Travis Baker, 51-81. Abingdon: Routledge, 2018.

“The Devil’s Daughter of Hell Fire: Anger’s Role in Medieval English Felony Cases.” Law and History Review 35:1 (2017): 155-200.

“Law and Equity in a Medieval English Manor Court.” In Texts and Contexts in Legal History: Essays in Honor of Charles Donahue, edited by John Witte, Jr., Sara McDougall, and Anna di Robilant, 257-275. Berkeley: Robbins Collection, 2016.

“Felonia felonice facta: Felony and Intentionality in Medieval England.” Journal of Criminal Law and Philosophy 9:3 (2015): 397-421.

“Quincy’s Latin Legal Maxims.” In Portrait of a Patriot: The Major Political and Legal Papers of Josiah Quincy Junior, vol. 2, edited by Daniel R. Coquillette and Neil Longley York, 323-427. Boston: Colonial Society of Massachusetts, 2007.

Shorter Works:

Review of The Making of Felony Procedure in Middle English Literature, by Elise Wang, English Studies (2024).

Review of Medieval Women and Urban Justice: Commerce, Crime and Community in England, 1300-1500, by Teresa Phipps, Speculum 97:1 (2022): 237-239.

Review of From England to France: Felony and Exile in the High Middle Ages, by William Chester Jordan, The Mediaeval Journal 6:1 (2016): 146-149.

“Felonies.” In Encyclopedia of Criminology and Criminal Justice, edited by Jay S. Albanese (2014).

Works in Progress:

“Late Ordeal Practice in Medieval England.”

“Intoxication and Insanity in Medieval English Law and Society.”

“Proving Felony in Medieval English Law.”

---

INVITED LECTURES, CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS, AND WORKSHOPS

---

“The Trial on Trial: Felony Fact-Finding in Medieval England,” Tufts Presidential Lecture, hosted by Tufts Historical Review and the Office of the President, Tufts University (18 April 2025).

Moderator, “From Treason to Trump: Felony’s Medieval Origins and Modern Resilience,” a book forum on Elise Wang’s The Making of Felony Procedure in Medieval English Literature, hosted by Modern Criminal Law Review (online 17 January 2025).

Respondent for keynote speaker Sara Butler, “Revenge Appeals: Malicious Accusations of Homicide as a Form of Resistance to Ecclesiastical Justice in Thirteenth-Century England,” International Congress on Medieval Canon Law, Canterbury, UK (13 July 2024).

“Consent in Medieval English Marriage and Misconduct,” International Congress on Medieval Canon Law, Canterbury (10 July 2024).

“The Veronica Legend and Proof of Felony in Post-Ordeal England,” Selden Society Annual Lecture, University College London (1 July 2024).

Respondent for papers by Raphaël Eckert (“The Distinction between the Concepts of Sin and Crime in Medieval Law, an Introduction”) and Corinne Leveleux-Teixeira (“Blasphemy between Sin and Crime: From Reprobation to Sanction, 13th-15th centuries”), Workshop on Iustitia/Ecclesia, Florence (31 May 2024).

“Eye Has Not Seen: Proof in Medieval English Felony Law,” Workshop on Iustitia/Ecclesia, Florence (30 May 2024).

“Felony and the Holy Face,” lecture on occasion of appointment as Austin Wakeman Scott Professor of Law, Harvard Law School (9 April 2024).

“Mens Rea in Medieval English Felony Law (13th-14th c.),” lecture in a doctoral atelier on L’intenzione nella cultura teologica-giuridica occidentale, École française de Rome (28 February 2024).

“Intoxication and Criminal Responsibility in Medieval English Law and Society,” Yale Lectures in Medieval Studies (1 December 2022).

Commentator for panel on Individual, Community, and Law in Ancient Athens (papers by Sara Forsdyke, Adriaan Lanni, Jesse James), American Society for Legal History Conference, Chicago, IL (12 November 2022).

“Finding Facts in Medieval English Law: The Strategies of Confessors and Coroners,” 16th International Congress of Medieval Canon Law, Saint Louis University (18 July 2022).

Participant in panel addressing: “In what ways did consent matter in sexual relations and in marriage?,” Radcliffe Exploratory Seminar on Historicizing Consent, Cambridge, MA (11 April 2022).

“Felony and the Guilty Mind in Medieval England,” Late Medieval Seminar, Institute of Historical Research, London (online 11 March 2022).

“Felony and the Guilty Mind in Medieval England,” Centre for English Legal History Seminar, University of Cambridge (online 30 November 2021).

“Finding Facts in Medieval English Law: The Inquisitorial Strategies of Confessors and Coroners,” Respondent: Karl Shoemaker, American Society for Legal History Conference, New Orleans, LA (5 November 2021).

“Doubt and Proof in Medieval English Law,” Torture, Death Penalty, Imprisonment: Beccaria and His Legacies, Columbia University (online 15 October 2021).

“Felony and the Guilty Mind in Medieval England,” Student Advisory Board Lecture in History, Trinity College, Hartford, CT (online 21 April 2021).

“Intoxication in Medieval English Law,” Oxford Legal History Forum (online 1 March 2021).

“Doubt(s),” Harvard History Department Seminar (online 17 November 2020).

“The Horrible Sepulture of Mannes Resoun: Drunkenness and the Medieval English Common Law,” Harvard Law School Legal History Workshop (online 2 November 2020).

Workshop on Legal Materiality in Theory and History, School of Law, Queen Mary University of London (3 April 2020; cancelled due to pandemic).

Author-Meets-Reader: Elizabeth Papp Kamali, Felony and the Guilty Mind in Medieval England, American Society for Legal History Conference, Boston, MA; Commentators: Steven Bednarski, Richard Helmholz, and Shannon McSheffrey (22 November 2019).

Harvard Law School Library Book Talk: Felony and the Guilty Mind in Medieval England by Elizabeth Papp Kamali; Respondents: Charles Donahue, Intisar Rabb, and Nicholas Watson (13 November 2019).

“Dealing with Doubt in Medieval English Law,” Respondent: Nicholas Vincent, Davis Center Seminar, Princeton University (20 September 2019).

“Tales of the Living Dead: Dealing with Doubt in Medieval English Criminal and Civil Law,” British Legal History Conference, University of St Andrews (12 July 2019).

“Felony and Mens Rea in Medieval England,” Federal Judicial Center Law and Society Program, Harvard Law School (25 April 2019).

“Felony and the Guilty Mind in Medieval England,” Invited Lecture, St. Jerome’s University / University of Waterloo, Ontario (17 January 2019).

Respondent, “Copy, Licence, Bill, and Bond: Law and the Documentary Revolution in Late-Medieval England” by Tom Johnson, Davis Center Seminar, Princeton University (14 December 2018).

“Drunk on AALT: Drunkenness and the Medieval English Common Law,” session honoring Robert Palmer, Respondent: Charles Donahue, American Society for Legal History Conference, Houston, TX (10 November 2018).

“Tales of the Living Dead: Dealing with Doubt in Medieval English Criminal and Civil Law,” Northwestern University School of Law Faculty Workshop (5 November 2018).

“Tales of the Living Dead: Dealing with Doubt in Medieval English Criminal and Civil Law,” University of Minnesota Law School Legal History Workshop, Minneapolis, MN (11 October 2018).

“A Wykkede Stirrynge of Herte: Felony and Mens Rea in Medieval England,” Invited Lecture, Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel (18 June 2018).

“From Trial by Ordeal to Trial by Jury,” Federal Judicial Center Law and Society Program, Harvard Law School (24 April 2018).

“The Living Dead: The Legal Afterlife of a Classical Trial Tale,” Respondent: Paul Brand, Medieval Academy of America Meeting, Atlanta, GA (2 March 2018).

- “Trial by Ordeal by Jury in Medieval England, or Saints and Sinners in Literature and Law,” William & Mary Law School Faculty Enrichment Workshop (11 January 2018).
- “Trial by Ordeal by Jury in Medieval England,” Penn Law Legal History Workshop (11 October 2017).
- “Gossip Networks, Craft Connections, and Legal Investigation: Homicide Inquests in London, 1321-1340,” British Legal History Conference, University College London (6 July 2017).
- “Judging Judges: Three Tales as a Window into Medieval English Adjudication,” Respondent, James Q. Whitman, American Society for Legal History Conference, Toronto, Ontario (29 October 2016).
- “The Sources of Medieval English Legal History: Law and Literature, Law in Literature, Law as Literature,” Medieval Studies Seminar (Looking for Law in All the Wrong Places: Medieval Legal History and the Problem of Sources), Harvard University (12 September 2016).
- “Perilous and Prosaic: Felony Judging in Medieval England,” International Congress on Medieval Studies, Kalamazoo, MI (14 May 2016).
- “The Devil’s Daughter of Hell Fire: Anger’s Role in Medieval English Felony Cases,” Stanford Law & Humanities Workshop (12 January 2016).
- “Anger’s Place in the Medieval English Law of Felony,” Yale Legal History Forum (17 November 2015).
- “Anger and Criminal Intent in Medieval English Law,” Law and Governance in Pre-Modern Britain, University of Western Ontario (24 October 2015).
- Respondent, Symposium on “Law, Legal Culture, and Lived Lives in the Medieval North,” Harvard University (9 October 2015).
- “Common Law for an Uncommon City: Conflict between Royal and Local Authority at the 1321 London Eyre,” The British Legal History Conference, University of Reading (8 July 2015).
- “A Wykkede Stirrynge of Herte: The Role of Anger in Medieval English Felony,” International Congress on Medieval Studies, Kalamazoo, MI (17 May 2015).
- “Anger’s Role in Medieval English Felony Trials,” Emotion in the Courtroom, University of St Andrews (5 May 2015).
- “Mens Rea and Judging in Late Medieval England,” Premodern Colloquium, University of Michigan (12 April 2015).
- “Mens Rea and the Meaning of Felony in Medieval England,” Legal History Roundtable, Boston College Law School (22 January 2015).
- “The Devil’s Daughter of Hell Fire: The Role of Anger in Medieval English Felony Adjudication,” Respondent, David J. Seipp, Pre-Conference Workshop on Medieval Legal History, American Society for Legal History Conference, Denver, CO (6 November 2014).

- “A Felonious State of Mind: Felony and Mens Rea in Medieval England,” Respondent: Karl Shoemaker, Kathryn T. Preyer Prize Panel, American Society for Legal History Conference, Miami, FL (8 November 2013).
- “The Authority to Bind and Loose: Guilt Assessment in Medieval England,” The British Legal History Conference, Glasgow, Scotland (12 July 2013).
- “The Authority to Bind and Loose: Guilt Assessment in Fourteenth-Century England,” International Congress on Medieval Studies, Kalamazoo, MI (10 May 2013).
- “A Felonious State of Mind: Felony and Mens Rea in Medieval England,” Medieval Academy of America Meeting, Knoxville, TN (6 April 2013).
- “Felony and Mens Rea in Medieval England,” Faculty Brownbag, University of Kentucky Law School (22 February 2013).
- “Felony in the (Digital) Archives,” Thoughts on the Future of the Past, a symposium hosted by the Medieval and Early Modern Studies program at the University of Michigan (7 September 2012).
- “Felonia Felonice Facta: Felony and Intentionality in Medieval England,” Respondents: Antony Duff and Lindsay Farmer, Criminal Responsibility and Its History, an invitation-only workshop at the University of Minnesota Law School (13 April 2012).
- “Royal City, Self-Ruled City: Orality, Writing, and the Legal Status of Fourteenth-Century London,” International Congress on Medieval Studies, Kalamazoo, MI (14 May 2011).
- “The ‘Idea of Rome’ as a Key to Understanding Roman Law Influence in the Age of Glanvill and Bracton,” Respondent: Richard Helmholz, American Society for Legal History Conference, Philadelphia, PA (20 November 2010).
- “The ‘Idea of Rome’ and the Medieval English Common Law,” University of Michigan Medieval Brownbag Series (11 October 2010).
- “Royal City, Self-Ruled City: Orality, Writing, and the Legal Status of Fourteenth-Century London,” Respondent: Ana María León, Writing Cities Workshop, MIT (1 October 2010).
- “Rome in the Medieval English Legal Imagination,” Respondent: Rabia Belt (University of Michigan), Student Research Roundtable, University of Michigan Law School (5 October 2009).
- “Provocation Doctrine Reevaluated: Self-Help Homicide of Adulterers in Ancient Athens and Modern America,” Harvard Law School Summer Research Program (21 August 2007).

---

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

---

Harvard Law School, Cambridge, MA, 2015-present

Criminal Law (Fall 2016, Spring 2019; Fall 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022; Spring 2025)
 English Legal History, cross-listed with FAS as Medieval Studies 117 (Spring 2016, 2017, 2018, 2020, 2021)
 Mind and Criminal Responsibility in the Anglo-American Tradition (Spring 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2022, 2023; Fall 2023)
 Legal History Writing Group (Spring 2021, Fall/Spring 2022-23)

Medieval English Law, a reading group (Fall 2016)
Bloodfeuds in the Icelandic Sagas, a 1L reading group (Fall 2015)

Other Teaching:

Preparation for general exams and service on doctoral committees for Harvard University students in History, Sociology, and English.
Guest Lecturer, “Felony and Mens Rea in Medieval England,” in Professor Kathryn Reyerson’s History course, Murder in the Middle Ages: Criminal Law, University of Minnesota (20 September 2023).
Visiting Scholar, NEH Summer Institute on Law and Culture in Medieval England, Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, MI (held online); teaching on the theme of “Crime, Gender, and Violence” (12-13 July 2021).
Invited Instructor, Professor Sonu Bedi’s seminar on Kahler v. Kansas, 2020 Law and Ethics Fellowship Program, Ethics Institute, Dartmouth College (14 February 2020).
Invited Instructor, “Legal History,” HLS Research Seminar on Methodologies (28 February 2025)

Graduate Student Instructor, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI

Pre-Modern Europe, Prof. Katherine French (Fall 2014)
The Origins of Europe II (1000-1500), Prof. Hussein Fancy (Winter 2012)
Early Medieval Europe, Prof. Paolo Squatriti (Fall 2010)
Late Medieval Europe, Visiting Prof. Ted Blanton (Winter 2010)
Medieval, Renaissance, Reformation, Prof. Diane Owen Hughes (Fall 2009)

---

LEGAL AND FINANCIAL WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Edwards, Angell, Palmer & Dodge, LLP, Boston, MA, Summer Associate, 2006

Orion Consultants, New York, NY, Associate, 1997-2004

Advised broker/dealers on their relationships with institutional investors in the fixed income arena. Managed client relationships with Lehman Brothers, Chase Securities, and PaineWebber.

CASA of Tulare County, Visalia, CA, Court-Appointed Special Advocate, 2001-2004

Represented children in foster care in juvenile court hearings as a trained volunteer advocate.

---

OTHER ACADEMIC WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Prof. Daniel Coquillette, HLS History Project, Research Assistant, 2005-2007

Researched history of Harvard Law School, focusing on Isaac Royall. Translated and annotated the Latin legal maxims compiled by Josiah Quincy, Jr.

Prof. Don Babai, Islamic Investment Project, Research Assistant, 1994-1997

Investment study involving the faculty of the Center for Middle Eastern Studies, Harvard Business School, and Harvard Law School.

Prof. George H. Williams, Harvard Divinity School, Editorial Assistant, 1996-1997

Assisted with final stages of manuscript entitled Divinings: An Ecclesiastical History of Harvard.

Harvard University:

University Faculty Advisory Council, 2025- (2-year term).
Standing Committee on Medieval Studies, 2015-2023, 2024-2025.
Events and Research Subcommittee, 2015-2019. Chair, 2018-2019.
Strategy and Planning Subcommittee, 2020-2023.
Selection Committee, Medieval Studies Ph.D. Thesis Prize, 2023.
Harvard Initiative for Learning & Teaching (HILT) Grant Faculty Selection Committee, 2018.
Academic Appointments Advisory Group, 2020-2023.
Anti-Bullying Policy Working Group, 2021.
Drafting Subcommittee, 2021.
Sackler Denaming Advisory Committee, 2023-2024.
Faculty Advisory Committee for HLS Dean Search, 2024-2025.

Harvard Law School:

Deputy Dean, 2020-2023.
Lateral Appointments Committee, 2022-2023.
Entry-Level Appointments Committee, 2020-2022.
Curriculum Committee, 2020-2023.
Library Committee, 2016-present. Co-Chair, 2023-2025.
1L Section Leader for Section Five (2018-2019) and Section Three (2019-2020).
Advising Faculty, Program of Study in Law and History, 2015-present.
Reviewer, Stephen L. Werner Prize in Criminal Justice, 2019-2024.
Mentor, Emerging Leaders Program, 2019-2020, 2022-2023, 2024-2025.
Faculty Coordinator (with Adriaan Lanni and Tamar Herzog), Annual Lecture on Latin American and European Legal History, sponsored by the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid and Fundación Asisa, 2016-present.

---

OTHER ACADEMIC SERVICE

---

Associate Editor (Book Reviews, Europe), Law and History Review, 2017-2024.
Co-Editor, Journal of Legal Analysis, 2024-present.
Editorial Board, Law, Peace, and Justice in Medieval and Early Modern Europe series, Durham University IMEMS Press and Boydell & Brewer, 2021-present.
Advisory Board, Premodern Crime and Punishment series, University of Amsterdam Press, 2017-present.
Editorial Advisory Board, Studies in Medieval and Early Modern Canon Law series, The Catholic University of America Press, 2020-present.
International Advisory Board, Carolingian Canon Law \(CCL\), 2022-present.
J. Willard Hurst Book Prize Committee, Law and Society Association, 2018.
Collaborating Member, History of Law and Emotions Research Cluster (Australian Research Council Centre of Excellence for the History of Emotions and the Institute of Legal and Constitutional Research, St Andrews, Scotland), 2016-2022.
Article Referee, American Journal of Legal History (2019, 2020), Crime, Histoire et Sociétés (2019), Fragments: Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Study of Ancient & Medieval Pasts (2016), History Compass (2019), Law and History Review (2020, 2024), Speculum (2019, 2020, 2022, 2023), Yale Law Journal (2017).
Book Referee, Amsterdam University Press (2021), Cambridge University Press (2020), Oxford University Press (2021, 2023), Yale University Press (2019).
Remote Referee, European Research Council Advanced Grant (2024).

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

---

American Bar Association, 2015-present.
American Historical Association, 2008-present.
American Society for Legal History, 2001-present.
    Local Arrangements Committee, 2019.
    Nominating Committee, 2020-2023; Co-Chair, 2021-2023.
    Board of Directors, 2023-present (3-year term)
    Executive Committee, 2023-present (2-year term)
    Sutherland Prize Committee, 2023-present (3-year term)
Ames Foundation, Board of Directors, 2017-present. Trustee, 2023-present.
The Early English Text Society, 2017-present.
Fourteenth Century Society, 2013-present. Secretary, 2014-2016.
Medieval Academy of America, 1998-present.
    Program Committee for 2025 Centennial Conference, 2023-2025.
Selden Society, 2009-present.

LANGUAGES

---

Strong reading knowledge of Middle English, Spanish, French (including Anglo-Norman), Latin. Elementary reading knowledge of German. Rudimentary Persian.

BAR ADMISSION

---

Member of the New York Bar.